

Rely on Gerard To Beat Hearst In Primaries

Wilson Men Suggest Ex-
Envoy as Democratic Nominee for Governor

Admit Editor Can
Head State Ticket

But He May Pass It Up in
Deal to Get Presidential Nomination

Democrats opposed to the ambition of William Randolph Hearst to be their party's candidate for Governor this fall are beginning to lose hope. Hearst controls the situation. If he wants the nomination he can have it.

This is the belief of Democratic leaders of all shades, and with very few exceptions they are opposed to Hearst. But the two big leaders of the party in the state, Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany, and "Fingey" Connors, his vice-regent in Buffalo, are with Hearst, and between them they control enough leaders to nominate any candidate.

Administration Alarmed
Washington is perturbed over the situation. The members of the President's official family, who have a keen interest in the success of the ticket here next fall, are doing their bit to spike Hearst's guns.

But they are doing it by stealth. They have not come out in the open. They dare not give outward expression to their opinions for fear of Hearst's vitriolic pen. And they fear that if he is nominated—as all believe he will be if he goes into the primaries—he will destroy whatever chance the Democratic party has in the state and through the attacks that are certain to be made on him on his war record will bring odium on the party the country over.

"This is how the Wilson Administration views the situation here," said a Democratic leader who attended the conference at the National Democratic Club on Friday. "It believes that it has a good fighting chance of keeping the Senate Democratic if Hearst is not a candidate for Governor next fall. It knows that as things stand now the House is certain to go Republican. But it believes that Hearst's candidacy would mean that the Republicans would use his war record as an argument why voters of other states should not give their suffrage to the candidates of a party which would start a civil war with Hearst's war record. And while the argument would not be exactly fair it would be made, and it would carry weight. The eyes of the country are always centered on New York State during an election, and charges made here by either side find publication in newspapers throughout the land. And the things which would be said about Hearst would not help the fight out any."

Many Favor Gerard
The Tribune's informant declared that Washington had no candidate, but would lend its support to any anti-Hearst candidate. Some of the anti-Hearst men in this state are now looking to James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to the Kaiser's Court, as one of several who may save the situation. It was learned yesterday that, at the Democratic conference here on Friday, the availability of Judge Gerard was discussed.

Joseph Murphy, the Democratic leader of Rensselaer, and an avowed anti-Hearst man, is said to be one of the up-State leaders who want to see Gerard nominated.

"Judge Gerard," said a close friend of his yesterday, "is the one man in the state available to the Democrats who has any of the war glamour around him. I believe he is the one man in the Democratic party who could give Whitman, who is going to run largely on his war record, a good fight. Gerard is 100 per cent American, and the film dramatization of his book, 'My Four Years in Germany,' will be familiar, we expect, to at least 75 per cent of the people of the state before August 1. This will help him considerably."

Asked his opinion of Hearst's chances, the Gerard advocate said: "Hearst can't get the nomination if he wants it. He made a bargain last year with the Chief (Charles F. Murphy) and he kept his part. He withdrew in favor of Hyman and helped elect him and the whole of it. And the Chief is a good man to work with. His word is as good as his bond. But Hearst hasn't a Chinaman's chance of beating Whitman, and Hearst knows it. But he is like the dog in the manger; he can't eat the oats and won't let the horse eat them."

Hearst Agents Busy

"Hearst is getting his organization into fighting trim. His agents are touring the State and keeping in active touch with leaders and near leaders in every county. Hearst has always been a good spender. If Hearst does not take the nomination he can do as he did last fall in the municipal election—name the candidate.

"That will be satisfactory to Hearst if he is convinced that he would have no chance of winning himself, for it matters little, insofar as his real ambition is concerned, who is Governor for the next two years, provided he can go to the Democratic national convention in 1920 with the New York delegation pledged to him. For it is Hearst's dream to sit in the White House."

Copeland Urges Early Trial for Dr. L. P. Brown

Asserts Drug Bureau Head
Is Entitled to Square Deal
and Should Be Heard

Health Commissioner Royal S. Copeland announced yesterday that he had asked the Corporation Counsel's office to speed up the preparation of charges against Dr. Lucius Polk Brown, director of the Bureau of Food and Drugs, suspended ten days ago.

The request, he said, was made on Friday, and while he had not heard from the Corporation Counsel's office he had hoped that it would be possible to serve the papers on Dr. Brown the first of the week.

"The Brown case," he said, "is one of the things I want to clean up, and anyway Dr. Brown is entitled to a square deal. And a necessary element in a square deal is an early trial."

Should the charges be ready for service to-morrow, it is not possible that Dr. Brown will go to trial before next week, as he will require some time in which to prepare to meet the case against him.

To date, he says, he has only the vaguest idea as to the charges he will be called upon to meet. All the information he has received is contained in the letter James E. MacBride sent to Mayor Hyman.

Offer to Aid Pleases Gorgas
Dr. Copeland made public yesterday a letter from Surgeon General W. C. Gorgas, of the army, acknowledging receipt of a recent offer to cooperate, and emphasizing the necessity of maintaining the high standards of the department. General Gorgas wrote:

"I am pleased to learn that the policy of the New York Department of Health will be to make every effort to maintain its past traditions of efficiency. This is an era for specially trained service in preventive and progressive medicine. To meet the needs of modern municipal health administration it is absolutely essential that highly qualified and especially trained men and women in preventive medicine and sanitation shall conduct the specialized work."

"Accept my congratulations for your stated endeavor to maintain the highest standard for health conditions in New York City."

Lieutenant F. J. Osborne, in charge of the sanitary work of the army in New York, also wrote thanking Dr. Copeland for cooperating in the task of protecting the soldiers.

Staten Island Rules Relaxed
In order that Staten Islanders may have more milk, Dr. Copeland has agreed with Borough President Calvin Van Name that some restrictions of the Board of Health governing the keeping of cows may, under proper conditions, be waived in thinly settled portions of that borough. Dr. Van Name is so informed in a letter of yesterday in which Dr. Copeland says, however, that cleanly conditions in cow barns must be maintained.

In regard to the keeping of hens and sheep in the borough Dr. Copeland rules that the only conditions that must be observed are cleanliness and a decent consideration for the rights of neighbors.

Rainbows Do Great Work

The complete arithmetical picture of the achievements of the Rainbow Division, which carried on the Liberty Loan campaign in the eighty-six leading industries of the city, became available yesterday. It reported total subscriptions amounting to $564,757,940 for the third loan, against $409,367,140 in the second quota. Its quota in the last drive was $450,000,000, which is half of that of the entire New York District.

Seventy committees passed beyond the mark they set in the campaign last October. The electrical committee, of which Theodore Beran, of the General Electric Company, is chairman, made the greatest proportionate increase. Its aggregate for the second loan was $809,000 and for the third, $9,457,000. This committee won an industrial honor flag containing twenty-one stars, indicating an increase of 50 per cent over the total in the second loan.

Market Workers Unite

Market wagon drivers and porters working in the West Side market places organized yesterday the Teamsters, Chauffeurs and Porters' Union. Wage advances were demanded averaging about $2 a week. Drivers of single trucks ask $22 a week, with overtime at $1 an hour, and drivers of double trucks $25, with $1.50 an hour for overtime.

Union leaders declared that a strike would be declared to-morrow unless the demands were granted. P. Q. Foy, a market expert, estimated that 10,000 men were involved who handled practically all of the city's garden truck and dairy products.
